Ms. Donegan and Mr. Cukor

I acknowledge this is not your issue, but given Mr. Miller's silence could I bother you for a status update on this matter?

I am receiving direction from my board to cease all services and destroy all property and data in our possession. I don't want to do this given the Court's order, but we can't continue to provide Mr. Miller and his client services for free. I have attempted to reach Mr. Miller several times without a response.

Would you mind bringing my concerns to the Court? If you are uncomfortable with my request, would you share contact information for the court with me?

Thank you.

Mr. Miller-

As you know, the Court has requested that CFS continues to preserve all data and work product. We cannot do this for free.

Do you intend to pay for these services or not?

I'd appreciate a response.

Dear Mr. Lanterman, the judge's original order regarding costs to be paid by the defendant has not been changed by anything I am aware of. The Court asked in her text order below that her text order be sent to you and so I was complying with the judge's request. I do not know at this time when the judge will be ruling on the motion she mentions. In the event I obtain any further information from the Court, I will communicate it to you and all counsel. Thank you. Evelyn Donegan

Mr. Donegan

Ms. Donegan,

Thank you for forwarding this to me. I will accept this as your instruction to me per the Court's order. Pursuant to our contract with Mr. Miller (see attached), this ongoing retention of data comes at a cost.

Can you please advise who is responsible for these ongoing charges of $1725 per month?

Thank you.
